He Pleaded Guilty to the Charge of Embezzlement Only-He Makes a Statement Before Receiving His Sentence, In Which He Tells How Treasurer Coleman Persuaded Him to Do Wrong.

LEBANON, O., March 10 .- Al. Graham, the auditor of Warren county, stood up in a brand new and faultless titting suit of clothes Saturday and took his medicine without a murmur. The dose was of allopathic size and caused a flutter in the crowded court room. 'The sentence of the court is," said Judge White, in a firm tone, "that you be imprisoned in the penitentiary for the period of eighteen years and pay a fine of $126, Graham entered a plea of guilty to the indictment charging him with aiding and abetting the embezzlement of $63,-211.09. To the sixteen other indictments for receiving payment on false vouchers he entered a plea of not guilty. Before sentence was passed he made a statement to the court, confessing his complicity in the embezzlement of public money, but denied that he had received the amounts charged against him.

The fradulent school warrants he said were given to Coleman to be used as cash in Coleman's settlement as treasurer with the commissioners. Coleman had been speculating in stocks and begged Graham with tears in his eyes to save him from ruin and disgrace. Graham said he never received a cent of the warrants entered in the blank space above the commissioners' names in the treasurer's book.

He also said his signature in that settlement was a forgery. Graham said that on the morning he left Lebanon Coleman came to his house and made a proposition to buy off the investigating committee. He told Coleman he could do but little, as he had only fifteen cents. He drove to the court-house afterward and Coleman sent out a roll of $300, which was to be used to buy off the committee, but Graham took the money and used it in his flight from town.

During his statement to the court Graham was the cynosure of all, but he never once faltered or manifested the least excitement. His voice was the same as it used to ring out merrily in the long corridor of the court house for so inany years while he was auditor. Gra-ham had for his attorneys J. Kelly O'Neall, W. L. Dechant and J. A. Run-yan. The latter made a powerful and eloquent appeal for clemency, which brought out Prosecuting Attorney Anderson in sharp reply on behalf of the state.

DEFECTIVE STATUTES.

Those in South Carolina in Regard to Dueling.

CHARLESTON. S. C., March 10.—The grand jury in Edgefield county has made a presentment which causes some excitement. The jury arraigns the supreme court for delays and innovations. It dismisses the Morris-Gardner duel, which was attempted last February, by attacking very severely the dueling law. They say the statutes are so defective that nothing short of a duel actually fought is ever likely to be brought to the test of a trial.

A TEXAS AMAZON

Cleans Out a Court Room and Departs Without Interference.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., March 10. - An infuriated woman, a perfect Samson in strength, turning the scale at 175 pounds, cleared Mayor Kirkpatrick's office Friday in most approved style. She was on trial for tolerating a nuisance on her premises, and in course of the trial took accasion to pour forth a volley of abuse on the mayor. He ordered her arrest, and the officer who undertook to execute the order at once found he had struck a virago. With the fury of a wildcat she clawed him and pounded him until he was a herrible-looking spectacle.

The city attorney attempted to Interfere but was persuaded that it was none of his business when he received a judicious righthander on the jugular that sent him spinning.

The mayor was knocked out by a few sledge-hammer blows on the fa e, and the combat ended only when the mayor yelled to the policeman to let the fiend go. She picked up her coliar, her hat and her gloves, pinned up her torn and tattered dress, and walked out of court with a mild look of elation in her eye.

Houses.

NOTHING STARTLING EXPECTED.

Blair's Educational Bill Will Probably Be Voted on in the Senate-Several Measures to lie Considered by the House-Other Washington Dispatches. WASHINGTON, March 10.—The interest of the past week in congressional circles has centered in the investigation of secret session leakages in which Mr. Dolph's committee has been engaged. That committee is now engaged in calling senators as witnesses, and their examination may keep the committee busy during a greater part of the week. The general impression is that with this exminimation the investigation will cease and that the proposed imprisonment of recalcitrant newspaper witnesses will never take place.

Mr. Blair's educational bill will occupy the senate's afterneons during the coming week, and an effort will be made to bring it to a vote Friday afterneon. If it appears that this cannot be done the appropriations committee will bring in the argent deficiency bill and interrupt the debate on the Blair bill long enough to pass it.

The committee on privileges and elections will submit its report on the Montana contest sometime during the week. and Mr. Hoar will ask that it be given consideration at an early day.

Much interest is felt in the establishment of a permanent order of business when the Blair bill shall be out of the way. Mr. Frye will endeavor to have the Pacific railroad funding bill taken up. Mr. Platt will put forward the bill for the admission of Wyoming. Mr. Sherman will press his anti-trust bill, which has had already a partial consideration. Mr. Hale will urge his bill for the increase of the naval establishment. Mr. Dolph will ask consideration for his Mexican award bill, and finally the under vaigations bill which will have been reported from the committee on finance by that time, will make a strong fight for immediate consideration.

During the morning hour through the coming week the calendar will be considerate and the Oklahoma town site been may be further debated.

The committee on territories will push to a conclusion this week in the house the bill providing for the organization of the territory of Oklahoma. Monday will be consumed in disposing of matters con-nected with the District of Columbia. Messrs. Baker, of New York, and Dorsey, of Nebraska, have given notice that they will call up for consideration the state. There was a large attendance of men of all parties.

may not be carried out. The committee on elections has the contested case of Mudd vs. Compton, from the Fifth Marylaud district, ready to bring before the house, but Mr. Cooper who has charge of the case is willing to let the committee on terrttories dispose of its business before doing so. There is a probability however, that the case will be brought up before the end of the week, and in this event it will be pushed to a conclusion—the seating of Mr. Mudd, Friday, as usual, will be private bill day.

Ohio River Improvements. WASHINGTON, March 10.-Col. William E. Merrill, chief of the engineer corps, had a hearing before the house committee on rivers and harbors Saturday, in order to present the ideas of the board of engineers, in regard to the improvement of the Ohio river, Col. Merrill intends to construct four movable dams below Davis island. The cost of these, he thought, would be about $900,000, and in order to acquire the adjacent land $10,000 more would be necessary. He considers that these improvements would cover a space of four years, and asks that a good working appropriation be allowed, so that when the work is once commenced there will be no delay.

DEPOSED FROM OFFICE.

Bishop Bowman, of Chicago, Charged With Unchristlan Conduct.

CHICAGO, March 10.—The Evangelical conference investigating the charges against Bishop Bowman brought in the following decision:

"Charges sustained. Bowman found guilty and deposed from his office as bishop and the ministry until the next general conference."

The charge of "unchristian conduct" consisted of numerous alleged slanderous assertions against his fellow-members, in one particular instance Bishop Bowman being said to have characterized Nev. H. B. Hartzler, president of Moody's college, at Northfield, Mass., as a "vile and godless man."

Another charge was that he stigmatized the action of a certain conference as "a scheme conceived in hell and as "a scheme conceived in hell and brought forth in iniquity." There were also numerous charges of falsehood against the bishop.

THE BLAINES.

The Bereaved Family Emerge from Their Mourning Retirement.

WASHINGTON, March 10.-Mrs. Blaine has decided to emerge from the mourning retirement into which the recent deaths in her family have plunged her, and she is now at home to callers every afternoon after 5 o'clock.

The friends of the family all agree that it is a wise decision on the part of Mrs. Blaine. The bereaved family have sat aloue and thought on there sorrows until the strain and intensity of feeling have become unendurable. If ever a human heart requires to be taken out of its brooding it is during the first months after a severe bereavement, when the unfeeling society regulation of the weak and insane rules immerse the despairing mourner in a solitary confinement.

Shabby Treatment.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Considerable comment is made upon the treatment given Kentucky's Governor who came to the city Saturday evening on a special train as the guests of the city. Aithough they had telegraphed acceptance of Mayor Mosby's Invitation to attend the late George H. Pendleton's funeral and had announced their hour of arrival, not a soul was in the depot to meet the distinguished party. After waiting for a few moments they started out for themseives. Governor Buckner took quarters at the Burnet, and, after lingering for some time to see if anybody would come to tell them of the arrangements for the funeral, sent his Aid-de-Camp to learn something. The latter, hearing that Mayor Mosby was at the Gibson, went to that hostelry. After considerable trouble he learned that there was a committee handling the matter, the Mayor having departed. He entered the room and announced the presence of the Kentucky delegation.

"Well, we are glad to hear that you are here. Have you made any arrangements about going to the funeral?' said the officious Secretary.

"'Why, we thought that had been attended to,' replied the Aid-de-Camp.

"'Not by any means. If you go you will have to walk,' continued the brilliant Secretary. 'By the way, if you are going back to the Burnet, I wish you would drop these letters in the box,' and he handed him a dozen epistles ready for the mail."

THE Prohibitionists will hold their State convention at Lexington the 6th of May, to nominste a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

More than 2,000 penison bills of various kinds have already been referred to the House Pension Committee, four of which, it is estimated, would take $670;-000,000 from the treasury. The pension sharks at the National City are doubtless in high glee. A big surplus and an administration that doesn't care what becomes of it are what the sharks like, remarks an exchange.

CONGRESSMAN WILSON has introduced in the House of Representatives at Washington a bill "dividing Kentucky into two judicisl districts, and providing for holding district courts in these districts. The bill provides that courts shall be held in Bsrboursviile on the fourth Monday in September of each year, and may continue for a term of seven weeks, if so long time is required; at Catlettsburg on the first Monday in March, and may continue for seven weeks, if so ions time is necessary, and at Richmond on the first Monday in May, and may continue six weeks, if so iong time is necessary."

How's This?

Mr. Editor-Wonder what compensation Assistant Postmaster Davis receives from Postmaster Cox for parading his wealth before the people in his monopolistic journal. It must be to iet them know that said Cox has the wherewith to make the race for Congress.

Mr. Davis sees fit to belittie hundreds of industrious working men who inaveadded taxable wealth to the city, and did not have it left to them either. The writer would like to know which deserves the most credit, the man who builds his own home on a salary of ten dollars per week through the building associations or the man who never earned a dollar in his life, but had one hundred and fifty thousand left to him and invested seventyfive of it? Wili Mr. Davis please inform the public how many bricks he has put one upon another?

The whole secret of Mr. Davis' failure to successfully run a Republican paper, lies in the undeniable fact that its columns have always been filled with a fulsome amount of gush showered upon rich men and corporations.

THE LAKE SHORE ACCIDENT.

Conductor Houghtaling Said to Be Par-Ilally Responsible.

BUFFALO, March 10.—The patients in the Fitch hospital who were injured in the Lake Shore wreck are all doing Coroner Tucker and a jury visited the scene of the wreck Saturday afternoon, and made a thorough examination of the road and the grade. The inquest will be held to-morrow afternoon. As additional facts are learned it becomes more clear that the responsibility for the accident rests with Conductor Houghtaling. The rules governing the case of a train breaking in two specially say: "The forward part must not stop until the engineer is sure that the rear part of the train has stopped." From the statement of the passengers it is evident no step was taken to ascertain the position of the detached portion before the forward way and Collerette himself was rescued for the detached portion before the forward way and Collerette himself was rescued part of the train was stopped in Thursday night's accident.

Railroad Commissioner Richards, with his mechanical engineer, arrived here Saturday, and, in company with Superintendent Couch, Engineer Mooney, Conductor Honghtaling, the switchmen, brakemen, and all the trainmen who had anything to do with the accident, went out to the scene of the wreck. Superintendent Couch has had a long consultation with the crew of the wrecked train. It is learned that Engineer Mooney stated that after the engine stopped. Conductor Houghtaling frantically signaled him to go ahead. He tried to do it, but the automatic brake on one of the rear cars had been set and the train would not move. It is said that Conductor Houghtaling stated that he pulled the bell rope to stop the engine, but he thought at the time the rear section had stopped. When he saw that it had not, he jumped to the ground and signaled the engineer to go ahead. Sn-perintendent Wright says the result of the investigation being made by the company will not be made public until after the coroner's jury rendess a ver-

FACTORY BURNED.

Two Large Factories Destroyed by Fire Within Twenty-Four Hours.

ANDERSON, Ind., March 10.-Since Thursday night Anderson has lost over $100,000 worth of property and over 300 men have been thrown out of employment. Hardly had the smoldering ruins of the American wire nail works died away until another factory is wiped out of existence. Saturday morning at 4:30 the snath and cradle factory of T. C. Fisher, located in the northwest part of town, was totally consumed, together with the entire stock of material on hand. Mr. Fisher estimates his loss on material and building at $30,000; insured for $10,000.

The following are the companies and the amount of risk taken by each: London Assurance, Angola, Nevada, Traders' of Chicago, German American, amount of risk, $2.000 on building; North American, German of Freeport and California, $3,000 on stock; Fire association, $1,000; London and Lancashire, $1,000; Royal of New York, $1,000; Underwriters' of New York, $1,000, and Oriental of Hartford, Conn., $1,000. Total amount of insurance, $10,000.

The fire originated in the painting wagon. room, and had got under too great a neadway to be checked. This factory employed thirty men.

This is the third fire Mr. Fisher has sustained within the past few years. He believes this to be the work of incendaries. Two years ago the 19th of February last, Mr. Fisher was burned out. He immediately rebuilt on the present site. Mr. Fisher states that he will not rebuild. The loss of these two large factories is a severe blow to Anderson.

An alarm was turned in at the same moment from Kilgore's large heading factory, but the fire was extinguished with but small loss.

ALBERT NETTER IN LONDON.

He Expects to Beturn to Brazil Via New York.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A special cable to The World from London says Albert Netter, the Cincinnati banker and friend of Ives, who was discovered in January last in Rio de Janeiro as a prosperous negotiator, has turned up in London. He no longer finds it necessary to use the alias Nettleton, under which he did business in Rio de Janeiro. He has been here some weeks, and has arranged to float the bonds of his forty miles of street railroad in Rio, for which the money has been furnished, partially hy New York and partially by London investors. All his transactions with bankers and investors here have been made under his own name of Albert Netter, and his backers in New York cable him under that name.

"I expect to leave here for New York as soon as my contracts close," Mr. Net-ter said to a reporter, "which will probably be within three weeks. I expect to stay in New York some time before I return to Rio. There is no resaon now, and never has been, why I should not return there. A good many lies have been told about me; for iustance, it is not true that I married Clara Elsas. The charge of Nellie Hayden, of Cincinnatl, who accused me of embezzling certain bonds, is absurd. I never heard about the charge till after I left Cincinnati."

A Mother and Seven Calldren Burned to Death in Canada.

MONTREAL, March 10. - Cote St. Michael, a flourishing little country parish, about five miles from Montreal, was the scene of a most heartrending fatality yesterday, by which a whole family consisting of a mother and seven young children were literally roasted to death.

About 5 o'clock in the morning

Oneznne Collerette arose, and after starting the fires, proceeded to the out-houses to look after the cattle. He had not long been engaged in this work when he was startled by a cry of fire, and rushing out, found the whole house in flames. gardless of danger he rushed into the burning structure and made a desperate effort to rescue his wife and seven chilfrom the flames more dead than alive.

Within an incredibly short space of time the house was reduced to ashes and a'l that remained of the inmates were s few charred bones. Collerette was fear-fully burned and was removed to a neighbor's house where he now lies in a very precarious condition. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil which was left standing near the fireplace.

The Red Cross Issues an Appeal for Ald.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND IN WANT.

Money Asked for Which Will Carefully Be Expended Under the Supervision of the State Commissioner of Agriculture for Dakota.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The following statement to the American people has been received by the United Press from Clara Barton, president of the National association of the Red Cross: "For many weeks past the Red Cross has been in receipt of letters of appeal and statements in regard to suffering and destitution existing among the pioneer settlers of North and South Dakota. These appeals have come to us from trusted co-workers, and those who speak by rnle as authority on such matters. At last, they became so urgent as to be no longer ignored.

"Living here at the National capital, it was decided to call upon the senators and representatives in congress from these new-born states of ours. As one result of the interviews then had. Senator L. R. Casey, of North Dakota, wrote to Governor John Miller informing him of the inquiries of the Red Cross, under date of Bismarck, Feb. 18. Governor Miller wrote, thanking the Red Cross for the kindly interest evinced, and stating that he had referred the matter to Hon. H. T. Helgesen, state commissioner of agriculture and labor, with instoner of agriculture and labor, with instructions to give all particulars as to the wants of their people.

"Under date of Grand Forks, Feb. 21, Commissioner H. T. Helgesen wrote in part as follows: "There are probably 5,-000 to 6,000 people dependent, and a good many more who have provisions for themselves but need feed for stock. Considerable help has been received from St. Paul and Minneapolis, also from Chicago, and from several states east and south, but thus far only enough to temporarily relieve the needs of the destitute, and much more will have to be solicited from time to time.

'Commissioner Helgesen accompanies his letter with a paper which contains an appeal to the public signed by the commissioner, as follows: 'The suffer-ing for the want of provisions, clothing. feed, and feed for stock, in several counties of North Dakota is unprecedented. The destitution is almost exclusively confined to the newer portions Nelson and Ramsey counties, which have been settled about six years.

These new settlements were, like earlier settlements of most countries, components to most countries, components to most countries. settlements of most countries, composed by Hon. Isaac M. Jordan. After these largely of people whose resources would have been heavily taxed to succeed and placed in the hearse, and followed by keep themselves above want with favorable seasons.'

"The story as told on the commis-sioner, is that, of all our new states, Good seasons at first rewarded them; in 1888. All appeared well until August of that year when a severe frost, a thing unknown before, killed the ripening grain. It did much damage in the old and better portions of the state but it en-tirely destroyed the newer sections. The hardy men did not lose their courage but hired out to neighbors, thereby earning the money necessary for the seed and living of 1889. The unprecedented drouth of last year was doubtless felt most severely of any where in the west in the fields and families of the newly settled portions of both North and South Dakota,

"As Commissioner Helgesen says, a second entire failure in some sections left many people destitute. He adds: While nearly the entire state suffered While nearly the entire state suffered from drouth, only seven or eight counties need n u.h. assistance. In this area are the counties where the greatest amount of assistance is needed, viz: Nelson, Ramsey. Benson, Pierce, Bottineau, Rolette and Turner. Cavelier county will also need some help, as will Eddy and Memtosh, the latter in the southern portion of the state. In the counties named there are not less than 5.000 people. named there are not less than 5,000 peo-ple dependent, wholly or in part, on outside help, and until they can raise another crop, and a still larger number will need some assistance for stock.

Most of them have hay, but horses and oxen will not be able to work sufficiently to get in the spring crops, unless they have grain. The supplies heretofore received are far from meeting the demands, and provisions are urgently needed. The counties are well organized and supplies are distributed through the county commissioner. The greatest care is taken to prevent the improper use of these donations. All contributions whether money or provisions for tions, whether money or provisions for clothing, should be forwarded to said commissioner at Grand Forks, where the proper division will be made.'

"Commissioner Helgesen explains the condition of the state by showing that under its constitution in taking over property and debts from the former territory it has nearly reached the legal maximum of debt that may be incurred. It is, therefore, unable as a state to raise all the money and means necessary to supply the destitute. There is no doubt, from all the evidence, that the people of North Dakota are doing the very best for their suffering fellow-citizens. There is no doubt that appeals already made, and publicly given, have met with warm responses from the northwest. But there is no room to doubt that very much more is needed. The Red Cross association has satisfied itself as to that. Inquiries by its general field agent confirm this appeal and information as well as other statements received. There is no need with the excellent methods adopted by the state authorities for the presence of the Red Cross on this fleld; but there is a duty before it, and before the people of the sister states as well. The Red Cross believes that its duty will be done if by this authoritative statement it shall be the means of inducing subscriptions for the suffering people of Dakota large enough in amount to meet all the emergencies that will arise.

experiences and observations It would appear to us wiser to send money that can be used on the ground under direction of the state officials assigned to the duty than to spend it for railroad freight in purchasing goods or other articles of supplies, that may be better and more properly obtained with cash in the hands of those who know where it is most needed. In that way there will be a double help secured, as the people will thereby be aided to help themselves.

"The Red Cross, there'ore, advises that subscriptions be sent to H. T. Helgesen, state commissioner of agriculture and labor, Grand Forks, N. Dak. It nrges this because of the necessity and from a sense of the obligation which all America owes to these pioneer brethren who built new commonwealths in the

THE LAST SAD RITES.

Funeral Services Over the Hody of the Late German Minister.

CINCINNATI, March 10.-The funeral services over the remains of the late minister to Germany, Hon. George H. Peudleton, were held in this city Saturday. The services in Christ church was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Gibson and the Rev. Dr. Forest, the latter rector of Calvary church, Clifton, where Mr. Pendleton worshiped. It was attended by the family and friends only. Meantime one of the most imposing military and civic corteges ever seen in Cincinnati formed to escort the remains to Music Hall. Notable in the procession were all the political clubs of both parties. The passage of the cortege in the streets was marked by respectful and sorrowful interest of great numbers of persons who knew the deceased in life. On arrival at Music Hall that magniticent building was found to be filled, except the space reserved for those in the procession. As the casket was borne down the middle aisle to a catafalque in front of the center of the stage, the long line of pall-bearers separated and faced inward, while the audience arose and reniained standing. Meanwhile the great organ sounded a funeral march. The hall had been beautifully draped with National emblems and the space about the casket was decorated with palms.

The casket itself was most beautifully covered with the National colors, covered with calla lilies, with palms bound with purple. Conspicuous among the flowers was a wreath bearing the German colors, placed there by C. Pollie, the German consul at Cincinnati, in obedience to instructions from Count Arco Valley, the German minister at Washington, as a token of love of the services were ended, the casket was the family and friends, was borne to Spring Grove cemetery, where final interment was made. Fully 12,000 persons were in Music Hall, and many were unable to find room within.

The Only One in the World.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 10,-"The world looks new to me now" sald James Kelly, who was convicted of murder and sentenced to imprisonment for life in 1871, and who was released on a par-don Thursday. 'Grover Cleveland was sheriff at the time of my sentence," con-tinued the old man, "and instead of sending a deputy to Auburn with me he went himself, saying that he had never been in the state prison and wanted to improve the opportunity. I believe I am the only man in the world who has been escorted to prison by a president of the United States."

Found Floating In the River.

PEORIA, Ill., March, 10.—The body of Bernhard Junghaus, a wealthy horse importer, was discovered floating in the river here with the head split open, late last night. It is known that Junghaus carried considerable cash, but all the money and valuables were missing. The fact that the money, watch, etc., are missing would lead to the impression that the killing was done by a common thief, but the police think that the body was plundered to create such an impression, and that the bloody deed was committed by a jealous husband. No arrests have yet been made.
